Arts Award Discover

Visit to: _____

Name: _____

Arts Award Discover is a great way to explore arts and culture and find out what you are interested in. All you need to do is work your way through this special sketchbook and fill in each of the pages. Be as creative as you wish: draw pictures, write, make rubbings of textures, or collect natural materials. You can also add additional pages if you want.

Everything can be done during your visit today. If you want to finish it at home, just ask your Arts Awards advisor for help.

DISCOVER

The Caðw site you are visiting has lots of craft and art forms to discover. While you spend time here, look around and think about what you see and hear.

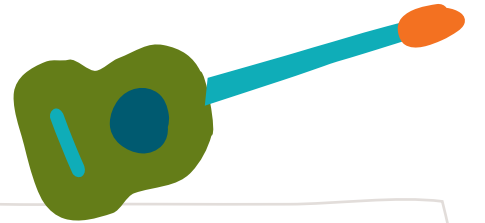

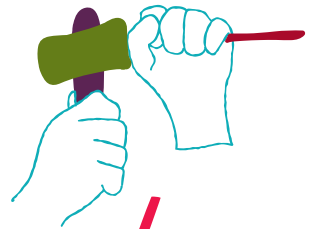

Do you know how the building or objects you come across were made?

What kind of craftsman or artist made it?

Objects and buildings might be old now, but once they were brand new.

Here are some art forms you might discover on your visit. Tick or circle the art forms you find. You won't find all of these on your visit, but you might be surprised at what you do uncover!

- Music
- Performance
- Painting or drawing
- Textile
- Dance
- Architecture
- Stone masonry
- Glass making
- Film
- Sculpture
- Story writing
- Poetry
- Wood carving
- Digital design
- Illustration
- Visual art
- Sound art
- Singing
- Curating (making displays)
- Landscape gardening
- Contemporary art installation
- Basket making
- Metal working
- Comic artist
- Games designer

Did you find any more art forms?

Draw

Write

Make

In the space below, draw a picture or write a short poem about something interesting you have seen on your visit so far. This could be inspired by part of the historical building, a sculpture, a character, or another piece of art or craft.

You might prefer to make a picture from natural materials that you find on your visit. You could write about it or make the picture on this page.

FIND OUT

An artist or craftsperson is someone who does creative activities or makes things (for example pottery, painting, music and song), designs buildings and gardens, performs, writes stories or poems, or designs digital apps or games.

Have you discovered an artist or craftsperson on your journey who you are especially interested in?

What is their art or craft?

How did you find out about them?

Tip: you could use visitor information, books or the internet for your research, or you might talk to a curator or guide.

Perform

Now, draw a picture, write about or make a performance of the artist or craftsperson while they are making. Use this space to write about or draw what you do.

Think about the tools and materials they might be working with, or the expressions on their face.

Do they work alone or as part of a team?

You may like to create a performance with a group of friends

SHARE

Part of being an artist or craftsperson is sharing what you have made with others. Now it's your turn to share your artwork. This could mean sharing your work with the people with you on your visit.

Who are you sharing your artwork with?

What did you tell them about your artwork?
