

Details

Reference Number

PGW(Gm)78(CAE)

NameWelsh National and Universal Mining Disaster
Memorial Garden,
SenghenyddGrade

II

Date of Designation*Status

Consultation

Location

Unitary Authority

Caerphilly

Community

Aber Valley

Easting*Northing*Broad ClassGardens, Parks and Urban SpacesSite Type

Memorial Garden

Main phases of construction

2013

Description

Summary Description and Reason for Designation

The Welsh National and Universal Mining Disaster Memorial Garden is registered for its significance as a memorial garden dedicated to all those who have lost their lives in colliery disasters in Wales. The garden holds strong historical associations and communal value for being situated on the site of the worst disaster in the history of British mining and for having an important role in connecting people with the past. It is an important site of public commemoration and memory.