Caerllion Rufeinig- Gweithio mewn Partneriaeth | Roman Caerleon – Working in Partnership

Role Description: Caerleon Community Advocate – Steering Group

Overview

Amgueddfa Cymru, Cadw and Newport City Council are working in partnership to improve the heritage and tourism offer in Caerleon for the benefit of the local community and visitors. This new organisation is currently exploring funding opportunities to finalise a new, joint vision and kickstart its delivery, which it wants to co-design and co-produce with the community and key stakeholders.

Caerllion Rufeinig - Gweithio mewn Partneriaeth | Roman Caerleon - Working in Partnership is overseen by a Governance Board. The day-to-day delivery of the work is led by the Steering Group. Two people who live and/or work in Caerleon are sought to join this Group to help with its work, mainly by seeking out and sharing local views.

Known as Caerleon Community Advocates – Steering Group, these roles are expected to last for one year with the possibility of a two-three year extension subject to funding and annual review by the Board. Caerleon Community Advocates – Steering Group are expected to abide by the Terms of Refere for the Steering Group (copy on request).

Expenses are available to encourage applicants from diverse backgrounds with useful experience and/or local contacts to become Caerleon Community Advocates – Steering Group (further details below). The required skills and attributes are listed below. However, the Governance Board is particularly keen to receive expressions of interest from young people (18 years or above) and those who work in Caerleon. No previous experience in Steering Group work (or similar) is required.

All reasonable efforts will be made to ensure meeting times and events suit the availability of the Caerleon Community Advocates – Steering Group and are likely to include occasional evenings and weekends. Additional work outside of the core meetings will by prior agreement.

Please note: anyone appointed as a Caerleon Community Advocate – Steering Group cannot also be a Caerleon Community Advocate – Governance Board, and the other way around.
