Heritage Combined summary of cover

Introduction

This document provides only a summary of the main benefits of the Heritage Combined insurance policy. An outline of the policy's significant features and benefits are set out below together with any significant exclusions, limitations and obligations you may have. For full details of all policy benefits and terms you should read the policy document and your schedule. A policy document is available by contacting your broker.

The policy is divided into a number of sections but not all the sections may be operative as part of your insurance. Please refer to your quotation or renewal documentation for confirmation of the sections of cover selected.

Things for you to think about

Please note this summary relates to our standard policy cover, if you feel you have specific needs or requirements outside of this we would be happy to consider your request. Please contact your broker.

Important information

This policy is underwritten by

Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc.

Duration of your policy

Generally 12 months from the start date shown on your policy schedule.

Renewal of your policy

Your broker will send you notice that your policy is approaching renewal before it is due. Your requirements may change over time, therefore please contact your broker if you wish to discuss your needs or any additional insurance requirements.

How do you pay

Please contact your broker for details on how to pay and the broker will be able to advise if they offer premium credit facilities.

Where are you covered

- Your organisation in England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man or elsewhere as agreed and shown in your policy schedule.
- Your contents whilst in your premises and in certain circumstances anywhere in England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.
- Liability – for claims arising from your organisation and activities conducted in England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Excess

Most cover sections will carry an 'excess'. An excess is the first amount of any claim or event, which you are responsible for. The amount(s) will be stated in your quotation or renewal documentation or in the schedule, together with information as to whether the amount will be applied per claim or per event.

Limits

Your cover is subject to an overall limit of indemnity, as well as various limits and sub-limits of indemnity which form part of and are not in addition to the overall limit of indemnity unless stated otherwise. Your policy schedule should be read in conjunction with the policy wording for confirmation of the applicable limits.

Cancellation rights

We have the right to cancel your policy by sending seven days' notice and shall refund to you the proportionate premium for the unexpired cover, this is shown in the policy document under the Policy conditions – Cancellation.

This policy does not entitle you to a cooling-off period.

General conditions

The following conditions apply to the policy (please refer to the individual sections of cover regarding significant or unusual exclusions/limitations that apply to each section):

- You must advise as soon as is reasonably possible of any alteration of risk which increases the risk of damage, accident or liability including major structural alterations or repairs at the premises and the use of the premises.
- For damage at or to the premises caused by theft or attempted theft it is a condition that all locks, bolts and other protective devices fitted to the premises must be put into full use whenever the premises are not attended by you or an authorised person.
- Where any premises is protected by an automatic fire alarm installation, conditions apply to damage caused by fire, lightning or explosion including you maintaining the installation in full and efficient working order at all times, carrying out the testing and maintenance requirements, notifying us of any disconnection, failure or reduced level of response.
- When an incident occurs you must tell us as soon as you become aware. You must also not make or allow to be made on your behalf any admission, offer, promise, payment or indemnity without our written consent.

Please refer to the General conditions and Claims conditions sections of the policy for full details of these conditions and other policy conditions that apply.

General exclusions

The following General exclusions apply to the policy (please refer to the individual sections of cover regarding significant or unusual exclusions/limitations that apply to each section).

- Infectious and communicable diseases.
- Date related performance and functionality.
- Cyber-related incidents.
- Nuclear, radioactive and chemical events.
- War risks.

Please refer to General exclusions within the policy document and your schedule for full details.

Property damage

What is covered

This section provides 'All Risks' cover for buildings with the option to insure for subsidence, contents, stock and personal possessions.

'All Risks' means damage to insured items by any cause not specifically excluded from this section.

How much you will be insured for

The buildings and contents will be covered up to the sums insured provided by you.

How we settle claims

Unless we have agreed otherwise and where the sum insured allows, we will settle claims as follows:

For damage to the building we will rebuild, repair or restore the property damaged to a condition equivalent or substantially the same as its condition when new.

For contents claims we will pay for repairs if these can be carried out economically otherwise we will pay for replacement as new.

For bed linen and personal belongings we will pay for repairs if these can be carried out economically otherwise we will pay for the replacement cost less an allowance for wear and tear.

For stock claims the settlement will be based on cost price.

Key extensions

This section is extended to include (for the standard limit specified or otherwise the Property damage sum insured):

- Damage to the buildings by theft – where theft is insured it extends to include, unless scaffolding is in place at the premises or the building is unoccupied:
 - Repairs following theft of the fabric of the building provided the building is insured.
 - Repairs following theft of external metal provided the building is insured.
 - Damage to the building caused by theft of contents provided the contents are insured.
 - Damage to the building and contents caused as a result of the entry of rainwater following theft or attempted theft of the fabric of the building including external metal.
- Cover for your insurance obligations for building works at your premises – £125,000 any one project for the new works and site materials.
- Alterations and additions to the property and newly acquired property. Subject to providing details as soon as practicable to effect specific insurance – 10% of the relevant buildings or contents sum insured or £500,000 in total whichever is the less.
- Property bequeathed to you – (a) buildings - 10% of the building sum insured or £250,000 whichever the less any one bequest; (b) all other property - £50,000 any one bequest and £5,000 single article limit.
- Additional stock for any exhibition, festival or fundraising event – the sums insured by this section will be increased by 10% of the stock sum insured or £100,000 whichever is the less.
- Removal of illegally or maliciously deposited items at your premises - £2,500 any one loss and £5,000 any one period of insurance.
- The cost of meeting local authority conditions made under the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 and amending legislation (or equivalent legislation in Scotland and Northern Ireland) following damage by any cause not otherwise excluded by this policy should these costs exceed the cover provided within the buildings sum insured – 20% of the buildings sum insured or £2,000,000 any one claim whichever is the less.

- Environmentally friendly and energy efficient rebuilding – following damage to buildings if you, with our consent, rebuild in a manner that aims to reduce potential harm to the environment or improve energy efficiency we will pay these rebuilding costs – 10% of any one claim, 10% of the sum insured or £500,000 whichever is the less.
- Reasonable costs incurred in taking reasonable measures to prevent or mitigate impending damage - £5,000 any one occurrence or series of events arising out of one occurrence.
- If we agree to pay your claim for damage caused by escape of water, fire, flood or storm and we agree to pay more than £10,000 for that claim, we will also pay towards the costs of improvements intended to mitigate or prevent future losses of the same damage - £500 any one claim.
- If following damage you elect to use architectural salvage as an alternative method of reinstatement, provided that this does not cause unreasonable delay, we will pay any additional costs incurred - £100,000 or 5% of the total claim whichever is the less.
- The costs incurred following payment of a reward for information leading to either an arrest and conviction or the successful return of undamaged items relating to an insured claim – 25% of the sum insured of each item stolen or damaged or 25% of the total sum insured of all items stolen or damaged in any one theft or incident and up to £15,000 in the aggregate in any one period of insurance.
- Cover for damage to property occurring in transit, or whilst at premises not in your occupation, within the geographical limits or European Union where you are participating in a fundraising event – £5,000 any one period of insurance.
- Following a valid claim under Section 13 Contractors' plant - Hired in, we will pay the balance between the amount payable and the full new replacement cost of the item providing the equipment is between 3 and 10 years old – £10,000 any one claim.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 1 Property damage and General exclusions within the policy document for full details.

- Wear and tear or any gradually operating causes.
- Damage caused following theft unless there is forcible and violent entry to or exit from the buildings.
- In respect of our buildings definition, the following are excluded: bridges, land piers, jetties and excavations. Also natural or artificial water courses, standing water such as dams, reservoirs, culverts, canals, moats, lakes, rivers or man-made elements attaching to or forming part of these.
- Subsidence – option to include this cover.

Are there any restrictions

What are your obligations

You must tell us as soon as reasonably possible if:

- The use of the building ceases and the building becomes vacant for a period exceeding 45 consecutive days.
- There is a change to your business activities or you are planning any large events.
- You are planning building work where the contract value is in excess of £125,000 or if the works involve the use of external scaffolding.

Things for you to think about

If any of the following apply please contact your broker:

- Should you have concerns that your sums insured are insufficient to meet your needs.
- You may wish to consider the 'Day One' method of inflation protection for your buildings, which provides you with a specified percentage uplift of the sums insured and is the most common method of insuring property.
- If you have requirements outside of the standard policy cover or the standard basis of settlement.
- If you require any optional covers, e.g. subsidence, fine art or terrorism.

Fine art and collections

What is covered

You may own items where claims settlement based on a replacement with a modern equivalent would not reflect their antique or artistic value, such as a painting or antique book. This section provides cover for loss or damage to these special items on either an agreed value or market value basis and any resultant depreciation.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to include (for the limit specified or otherwise the sum insured):

- An allowance of up to 60 days for you to tell us about new acquisitions. From the time you acquire the item until the date you tell us about it (and pay the additional premium), cover is provided up to 10% of the total sum insured or £250,000 (whichever is lower) for the type of item.
- The cost of defence or payment of damages if an item covered has defective title. If you have to relinquish possession of the item we will pay the amount you paid for it – £500,000 for all claims in any one period of insurance.
- The cost of repair and any reduction in value if an item is damaged by a professional restorer - the sum insured for each item or £1,000,000 whichever is the less and £1,000,000 in total for all claims during the period of insurance.
- Uncompleted works of art, jewellery, watches or furs which are damaged prior to completion or cannot be completed due to the artist's death – £30,000 in any one period of insurance.
- Cover is provided for items whilst temporarily removed from your premises and in transit – £5,000,000 or the sum insured (whichever the lower) in respect of art and £15,000 in any one period of insurance in respect of jewellery, watches or furs.
- Loss from an unattended vehicle provided the vehicle is locked, alarmed and the property is out of sight in a locked boot or compartment – £10,000 for all claims in any one period of insurance.
- The cost of moving items and keeping them in secure storage if the premises becomes unoccupied due to sudden damage or loss at the premises or a statutory or regulatory body prohibits use of the premises.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 2 Fine art and collections within the policy document for full details.

- Dishonesty of any of your trustees, employees or volunteers.
- Property not adequately packed during transit.
- Items in the open unless we agree otherwise.
- Damage whilst the items are in any building which is unoccupied.
- Mysterious disappearance or unexplained loss.
- Natural ageing, gradual deterioration, rust, humidity exposure.

What are your obligations

- When items are temporarily removed you must ensure that the property is securely and adequately packed during transit.
- In respect of any art that is on loan the value should be agreed between you and the owner before the loan is accepted.

- Gradual deterioration or wear and tear.
- Damage which is covered under a maintenance agreement, warranty or guarantee.
- Self-propelled plant and equipment.
- Biomass and Biogas installations, or hydroelectric installations.
- Any electricity generating equipment other than emergency back-up power or wind turbines less than 10kW or photovoltaic equipment less than 50kW.

What are your obligations?

To maintain a minimum of 2 copies of verified back-up computer records taken at intervals no less frequently than 48 hours and take all reasonable precautions to store and maintain these records.

Business interruption

What is covered

This section covers you for loss of revenue (which can include donations and grants, at your request) including additional costs incurred to reduce the loss of revenue of your organisation following damage insured under the Property damage section.

Alternatively, (or in addition to loss of revenue) cover can be provided for increased costs you incur to continue with your activities, such as hiring alternative premises. Other basis of settlement can be provided, such as loss of rent or gross profit to suit you. Please speak to your broker for more details.

Cover is provided for a specified period known as the indemnity period – this is the length of time, starting with the date the loss occurred, over which we will pay for a loss of revenue or rent (up to the sum insured) as a result of loss of or damage to your property.

How much will you be insured for

The organisation will be covered up to the sums insured and the indemnity period provided by you.

- Cost of recall, removal, repair or replacement of any product supplied by you.

Liabilities section

What are your obligations

Most organisations host a diverse range of activities and fundraising events including fetes, coffee mornings and concerts which this policy will provide cover for.

However, you must tell us if you are planning:

- Large events where attendance is likely to exceed 1,000 people.
- Hazardous or unusual events or activities.
- Significant overseas work or activities.
- Any change to your usual business activities that you have declared to us.

Things for you to think about

If any of the following apply, please contact your broker to review:

- If the limits are insufficient to meet your needs.

Trustees' and management liability

What is covered

Cover 1 – Trustees' liability - damages, legal defence and investigation costs, arising out of legal liability in respect of a wrongful act performed by a trustee, officer, director or member of the management committee carrying out any duty within their role. This extends to include an employee carrying out a duty on behalf of the trustee.

It also covers the costs of restoring or replacing any documents destroyed, damaged, mislaid or lost as part of an unintentional wrongful act.

Cover 2 – Trustees' and management liability - this includes the cover outlined above and also indemnity for the legal liability of the organisation. This indemnifies the organisation or trustee for damages, legal defence and investigation costs in respect of a wrongful act performed by one of the roles mentioned above on behalf of the organisation. Cover 2 also includes environmental defence costs (subject to an inner limit).

Cover is arranged on a 'claims made' basis which means it covers claims made against you and notified to us during the period of insurance.

How much will you be insured for

- Cover 1: This has a standard limit of £100,000 any one period of insurance with an inner limit of £50,000 in respect of lost or damaged documents.
- Cover 2: A range of indemnity limits are available however inner limits of £100,000 in respect of lost or damaged documents and £250,000 for environmental defence costs.

Key extensions (applicable to trustees' and management liability cover only):

- Continuation of cover for 72 months from the date the cover is not renewed in respect of any retired trustee or employee.
- Wrongful act committed by a trustee whilst acting as a trustee of another voluntary not-for-profit entity.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 10 Trustees' and management liability within the policy document for full details.

- Claims or circumstances which may give rise to a claim known to you at the start of the cover.
- Administration of any pension or retirement fund or scheme.
- Employment disputes.
- Intentional provision of action to be malicious or provide improper financial gain for anyone.
- Fines, penalties, liquidated damages, compensation awarded by a court of criminal jurisdiction or multiplied aggravated exemplary or punitive damages (other than for libel and slander).

What are your obligations

- You must submit annual reports and accounts to the appropriate regulatory authority within the prescribed timescales.
- Notify us of any claims or situation you become aware of as soon as possible and always within one month of you becoming aware of it.

Fidelity

What is covered

This section covers you for loss of your money or goods (including electronic transfer of your funds) caused by an act of fraud or dishonesty of an employee or volunteer.

How much will you be insured for

The organisation will be covered up to the limit of indemnity chosen by you, a range of limits are available.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to include:

- Cover for auditors' fees which you incur to substantiate the loss.
- Indemnity to the Trustees of any pension fund or other employee benefit scheme for any loss the Trust incur following an act of theft.
- Indemnity to you for loss of money belonging to you and that you are directly responsible for as a result of third party invoice fraud – £25,000 any one loss and in the aggregate in any one period of insurance.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 11 Fidelity within the policy document for full details.

- Repeated acts of theft by the same official once you have become aware of their dishonesty.
- Any unexplained shortages.

What are your obligations

- Cover will be subject to you complying with our minimum standards of control in respect of supervision, accounting procedures and checking the security of money or goods. Please review these minimum standards of control to ensure you are comfortable that you are able to comply with them.
- You must obtain satisfactory references to confirm the honesty of all employees who are responsible for money or accounts.
- Upon the termination of service of any employee you must take all reasonable precautions to prevent a loss by changing, deleting or invalidating alarm and security codes or passwords the employee had knowledge of or access to.

Things for you to think about

- What limit of indemnity is sufficient to meet your needs.
- Can my organisation comply with the minimum standards of control? (please contact your broker to obtain a copy of these).

Terrorism

What is covered

This section provides cover for damage to your property and (should you choose) resultant loss of income insured under other sections of this policy following an Act of Terrorism.

An Act of Terrorism is defined as acts of persons acting on behalf of or in connection with any organisation which carries out activities directed towards the overthrowing or influencing by force or violence of Her Majesty's government in the United Kingdom or any other government de jure or de facto.

Cover applies in England, Wales and Scotland but not the territorial seas adjacent thereto as defined by the Territorial Sea Act 1987.

Cover is provided up to the sum insured that you provide us with (see property damage and business interruption sections).

Optional cover – Non-damage Business interruption

If you decide to include the terrorism section you may choose to cover loss of income as a result of a terrorist event that does not involve physical damage to property. Contact your broker for more information.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 12 Terrorism and General exclusions for full details.

- Riot, civil commotion or war.
- Computer virus, hacking or phishing.

Things for you to think about

- Terrorism events are unpredictable and are not confined to major cities. The property damage and business interruption sections do not include cover for terrorism so you should consider adding the cover to your policy.
- If you choose to add cover for terrorism you must ensure that all of the property you are responsible for is insured for terrorism regardless of whether it is insured by us. Contact your broker to discuss this further.
